How a Mind Mirror works...

Think of a Mind Mirror more as an Inner Journey than a typical 'reading'.

Mind Mirrors are both personal & spiritual development tools, which can help you 'train' and 'tune' your own intuitive responses, helping you to learn to trust them - so you don't have to depend on what others to tell you, but help you to critically think about what you see and hear in a new way.

It's through listening to a lot of pod-casts about quantum physics and what's going on at CERN that I've become aware that what I've been calling quantum drawing for years, has actually got the characteristics of quantum entanglement.

My work exists somewhere in super state position. Faces and places appear and disappear in them all the time, and have done for years.

They're static, but also animate just by looking at them. They show super position in action utilising Pareidolia as the bridge or interface.

Pareidolia is a psychological phenomenon of noticing a significant pattern in unexpected places. The 'man in the moon', & 'green man' in foliage are common examples.

So there you have it,...

I trust you've enjoyed this glimpse into Hoonology,

How to work a Mind Mirror...

It's very simple, ... as you listen to the show just sit back from your screen with your beverage of choice and look through each page of this document till you find the one that resonates with you at this time.

Adjust the zoom factor till you're comfortable.

Relax your vision and let the drawing animate. Just let it happen - don't force it..

You can even think of questions while you listen and your eyes will move to different places on the screen.

You just have to find which part of the drawing means Yes and which part means No at this time.

So ask! Think to yourself,

Show me a Yes - note where your eyes go

Show me a No - note where your eyes go

Now when you listen and you doubt what you're hearing, just think "is this true?" and watch where your eyes go.

Try it for your self, and see.. It works for lots of people (not everyone) but it might give you another tool for your magical tool bag.

Would you like me to create a personal Mind Mirror just for you
